Starting Wednesday , October 23, in New Canaan the CERT Disaster Training course will begin. This is a disaster preparedness program consisting of six sessions offered, at no charge, in New Canaan for residents and those working in New Canaan.

CERT teaches people to take care of their families, their neighbors and others in the event of an emergency. CERT members are taught basic first responder response skills which could help save lives in an emergency.

In addition, the course covers fire safety and suppression, disaster operations and search & rescue. CERT course graduates become part of the New Canaan CERT deployment pool available to assist first responders in the event of a disaster. CERT members are also called upon to assist in public safety at events or when situations occur that need more resources.

The course will be held on six dates per the schedule below:

Day	WED	SAT	WED	WED	SAT	WED
Date	10-23	10/26	10-30	11-6	11-9	11-13
